The first, "The Standard Bearer," by Rem-The first, "The Standard Bearer," by Rembrandt, is the property of George Gould of New York, and is displayed in the loan section of the Palace of Art. The other, a genuine old "Rubena." forms part of the exhibit shown in the King's drawing-room, a Flemish interior in the Belgian Pavillon. This painting, which was loaned to the Belgian Commissioners by the owner, R. H. De Buck, a picture dealer of Brussels, is called "The Fleta." It is 5 feet square and represents the descent of Christ from the cross. St. John and the Virgin Mary are carrying the body away to prepare it for burial.

PYRAMID OF BOTTLES BROKEN. Noise Draws Surging Crowd-Chil-

Powell is 6 feet 6 inches in height and weighs 29 pounds. He is the heaviest and strongest man of the Philadelphia Reserves, which is composed of "six-footers." His station is at the corner of Third and Market streets, one of the busiest spots in the Quaker City, and his great strength has been useful to him on many occasions, and his many feats are the talk of Philadelphia. Powell is said to be one of the best-liked men on the force.

The other three men who began their work of guarding the bell yesterday morning were Frank Kinsley, Oliver Biackburn and Robert Callahan. Each is 6 feet 1 linch in height. Kinsley and Biackburn weigh 26 pounds and Callahan 228.

UNION TEAMSTERS ORDERED TO STRIKE

Chicago Leaders Hope to Embarrass Butchers by Cutting Off Their Ice Supply.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The union teamsters are to be the principal weapon which the labor leaders propose to use to win to-day to drivers of ice wagons to deliver no more ice to butchers who buy of the big packers, or to any of the branch houses of the packing plants where the men are now on strike.

A list of more than 259 retail dealers who have been buying meat from the alleged trust packers and hauling away with their own wagons, has been compled, and, according to the claims of the strike leaders, the ice supply will be cut off from every one of these places tomorrow morning. Arrangements have been made to have

JEFFERSON GUARDS MUST BE GOOD

Whether on or Off Duty They Are Not to Participate in Pike Revelries.

NEW ORDERS ARE RECEIVED.

Adjutant Conrad's Notice Issued After He Witnessed the Conduct of Several in the Crowd Saturday.

The sorrows of a poor Jefferson Guard are growing. Reviled by the public, immured within the walls of the Exposition and his every move regulated by strict orders, the last blow has fallen and henceforth his natural instincts are to be curbed and he must be a thing of beauty and most impressive dignity.

Official orders have gone forth that hencef h his mien must be stately, his conduct circumspect and his love of a good time kept in a subjection like unto that of an anchorite.

"Guards will not be participants in feetivities at the Pair like that of last Saturday," reads the order issued yesterday. And the notice goes on to relate how in the public eye better things are expected of the guards and that light, frivolous conduct of men in the uniform of the guards does not redound in the public gaze to the credit of the guard. And the guard is further reminded that whether in his regimentals or not whenever on the ground he is always on duty.

And it all came about through the lapse And it all came about through the lapse last Saturday night of some guards in uniform, but not on post, who for once forgot the awful dignity that doth hedge a guard and fell into the carnival spirit of the crowd. They laughed and sang and romped like ordinary mortals. More than that they purchased from the busy hawker some feather tickiers, and on pleasure-bent they wielded the little instruments of torture on the necks and ears and arms of various and sundry damsels, who strode the confetti-laden pavement of the Pike. And when the tormented maidens made their plaint they laughed a coarse laugh of derision.

Now, it chanced that Adjustant Conrad walked upon the Pike Saturday night in pursuit of his duties, and his eagle eye spied the indiscretions of the uniformed guards, whereat they buiged out in astonishment. What, a Jefferson Guard so far forget himself as to indulge in these childish pleasantries? And he sought the solitude of the commandant's healquarters and in a frenzy of discipline he sat him down and penned an order which went forth to all the guards yesterday admonishing them to be more circumspect in their conduct in future. last Saturday night of some guards in uni-

Informs Turkish Minister That Patience of United States Is Well-Nigh Exhausted.

Washington, Aug. 8.-Secretary Hay to day bluntly told Chekib Bey, the Turkish Minister here, that the patience of the American Government is well nigh exhausted. The Minister is expected to com municate this information to his home Government speedily.

Chekib Bey had no instructions from The Porte when he called at the State Department to-day. He had seen the newspaper reports of the intention of the State Department to second Minister Leishman's efforts diplomatically at Constantinopie by the presence of a fleet of American warships in Turkish waters and American warships in Turkish waters and he doubted the reports.

Secretary Hay soon satisfied the Minister on that point, and he returned to his legation to frame a dispatch for the information of the Turkish Foreign Office.

He did not care to make any statement himself as to the nature of his interview with Secretary Hay. There appeared to be an impression i nitse mind of the Turkish statesman that because the President of the United States could not make war without the consent of Congress, he thereby was estopped from indulging in a naval demonstration to forward his purpose to secure fair treatment for the Americans in Turkey.
